When I was very young, I saw this å•°åº¦ç¥žæ²¹ ad. painted everywhere, it is almost as propular as the "King of Kowloon" art. Is there any left in HK? what kind of wordings are used. I remember when I asked my parents what the ad. means and they all turned away from me.:P Can someone post a photo of it please? Thanks in advance.

p.s. If Administrator found this is a silly :silly: request, please delete this post. or :blush: me
